localisation & environnement:

Mahon is the capital city of the island Menorca.

The city located on the eastern coast of the island, which is part of the autonomous community of the Balearic Islands, Spain. Maó-Mahón has one of the largest natural harbours in the world: 6km long and up to 900 metres wide. The water is deep but it remains mostly clear due to it being slightly enclosed. Its population was estimated to be 29,000 inhabitants.

Towards the end of the 20th century, the renovation of its historic centre was made possible by income from tourism.

A traditional cheese made on the island (Mahón cheese) is named after the city. Some believe that the origin and name of mayonnaise are found in this Menorcan city. In Spanish mahón is also the name of nankeen, especially the blue cloth.
